

Little Missenden CE Infant School

Special Educational Needs (Information)

Regulation Annual Report 2024-25

At Little Missenden CE Infant School, we believe everyone in our school community deserves respect and kindness. It is the foundation of our school vision, founded on Ephesians 3:17, 'Rooted and grounded in love.' Through this we seek to nurture and support all within our school community, enabling them to take root and grow from the foundations of love in order to reach the fullness of their potential, flourishing and living lives displaying the values of friendship, thankfulness, honesty, forgiveness, compassion and trust.

Pupils come to the school with a variety of needs which the school will assess and aim to meet. By recognising those needs and differentiating our resources and practice, we aim to provide an inclusive curriculum to ensure the best possible progress for all of our pupils whatever their needs or abilities. Not all learners with disabilities have special educational needs and not all learners with SEND meet the definition of disability but this report covers all of these learners.

All mainstream schools and maintained nursery schools are required by law to produce a Special Education Needs Report on an annual basis (Special Educational Needs (Information) Regulations Clause 65). By law, this information must be made available to parents on the school website.

Please take time to read our annual report below along with our SEND policy which can be found on our website at www.littlemissendenschool.co.uk

If you would like further information or to discuss your child's particular needs, then our SENDCo would be happy to meet with you. This can be arranged by contacting one of the team in our school office.

1. What type of SEND is provided for?

We believe in providing a broad, enriching and enjoyable curriculum that caters for children's individual strengths and needs. We recognise that some children require additional support to thrive at school and we strive to eliminate any barriers to learning which could hinder or exclude individual pupils. We believe that all children should feel safe and valued in school and we will work hard to eliminate prejudice and discrimination. We support the development of the whole child, whilst valuing and celebrating the many and varied abilities displayed by all children.

Little Missenden CE Infant School caters for children with SEND by making reasonable adjustments based on the child's individual needs. We currently have provision in place for children with communication and interaction needs, specific learning difficulties and speech difficulties needs. We will always seek to understand a child's strengths and challenges and make reasonable accommodations and adjustments to support them. We strongly encourage parents to make an appointment with the Headteacher before applying for a school place to ensure the right support can be accessed and provided.

The school's Accessibility policy can be found by clicking here.

2. What is the School's Inclusion Policy?

a) Identifying and assessing pupils with SEND is addressed in the following ways:

- By the regular monitoring of progress which prompts concerns about a pupil's development in one or more specific curriculum areas.
- By considering a pupil's level of attainment compared with the expected attainment for their age.
- By considering concerns raised by parents/carers/teachers or the child.
- By considering changes in a pupil's behaviour.

b) Evaluating the effectiveness of provision for pupils with SEND is addressed in the following ways:

- By scrutinising children's work and by reviewing provision.
- Monitoring the quality of teaching and the implementation of interventions to ensure that they are effective and have impact on raising attainment.
- Discussions with, and surveys by pupils, staff and parents.
- Ongoing review of SEND Support Plans by the SENDCo.
- Evaluative visits by the SEND Governor and Chairman of Governors.
- Data analysis and progress tracking by the Headteacher and all staff, for example through pupil progress meetings.

c) Assessing & reviewing the progress of pupils with SEND is addressed in the following ways:

'Rooted and grounded in love' Ephesians 3:17
friendship, thankfulness, honesty, forgiveness, compassion and trust

- Daily ongoing assessment as part of everyday teaching; formative assessment
- Progress and attainment monitoring; termly progress meetings identify all children's current attainment and the amount of progress they are making.
- Children with support plans or EHC Plans are assessed regularly and their progress reviewed termly against their personal targets.
- Assessments may be carried out by outside agencies such as the Speech and Language team or Educational Psychologist if the school considers it is appropriate.

3. What is the school's approach to teaching pupils with SEND?

We follow the Graduated Approach to teaching pupils with SEND. Every SEND pupil is given a SEND Support Plan and enters the termly cycle of Assess, Plan, Do Review (APDR). Short-term targets are set based on pupil assessment and analysis of needs and appropriate provision is put in place. The short-term targets are designed to work towards longer-term outcomes agreed with parents.

We adapt the curriculum & learning environment in the following ways:

- We adapt teaching and learning strategies according to need
- We provide scaffolds and models to support task initiation and completion
- We will, if necessary, differentiate the curriculum and learning tasks
- Specialist equipment may be given to pupils as appropriate e.g. pencil grips, writing slopes or sensory cushions.
- A range of curriculum resources are used to scaffold learning in specific subject areas e.g. word banks, task organisers and 'chunked' learning tasks can be used in English lessons.
- Adaptations are made to the learning environment to accommodate individual pupils e.g. seating position or the provision of large print.

We provide additional support for learning in the following ways:

- The class teacher may deploy Teaching Assistants (TAs) to work with pupils on a 1:1 basis or within small groups in order to target more specific needs. TAs also support pupils within the classroom alongside the class teacher.
- Intervention groups are run by TAs to target specific areas of the curriculum such as phonics, handwriting, basic literacy and numeracy skills. Targeted intervention programmes vary in length and are detailed on the child's SEND Support Plan. The interventions are regularly reviewed to ascertain the effectiveness of the provision and to inform future planning.
- Some pupils with SEND may require more expert support from an outside agency such as the Specialist Teaching Service. A referral will be made, with parental consent, to the most appropriate agency. After a period of assessment, specialists will make recommendations which will be included in the SEND Support Plan. In some cases, specialist teachers may support children in class.
- Teachers and TAs listen to readers in school on a regular basis.

'Rooted and grounded in love' Ephesians 3:17
friendship, thankfulness, honesty, forgiveness, compassion and trust

We encourage participation in activities that are available to all pupils through the normal school curriculum. These include:

- A range of clubs lunchtime and after school clubs
- Topic linked school trips.
- A range of visitors and curriculum enrichment activities.
- A strong emphasis on child-initiated learning in Reception, allowing children to apply skills and work at their level on things that interest them.
- A wide range of performance opportunities inside and outside of school including class assemblies, Christmas productions, country dancing performances etc.

Appropriate support and procedures are put in place so that all children can participate in extra-curricular activities. Risk assessments are carried out for pupils with SEND. If it is deemed that an intensive level of 1:1 support is required, an additional adult will accompany the child during the activity.

We support the emotional and social development of pupils with SEND:

- We recognise it is essential that children feel happy, safe and secure if they are to learn effectively.
- TAs will run small group interventions and nurture groups designed to develop social skills
- Playground Buddies support other children at break and lunchtimes for children who find playtimes a challenge.
- Our PSHE curriculum covers many aspects of emotional and social well being
- Daily collective worship and the direct teaching of our school vision and values.

- We are always willing to discuss individual access requirements with a view to making reasonable adjustments to the environment.
- The school is all on one level and is accessible to wheelchair users.
- We do not have a disabled toilet facility but one toilet is 'disabled ready' if there is a need to adapt it.
- We will strive to access specialist equipment via the local authority's SEND team if needed

- The school SENDCo attends regular training in all aspects of legislation and practice related to SEND
- Whole school staff training for teachers and TAs is organised which reflects the needs we are catering for in the school.

'Rooted and grounded in love' Ephesians 3:17
friendship, thankfulness, honesty, forgiveness, compassion and trust

- Staff may receive individual training from external sources related to any child with SEND they may be supporting e.g. supporting children with Speech and Language needs.
- An induction programme is provided for newly appointed TAs which includes outlining policies and enables the new member of staff to shadow experienced TAs.
- Appropriate staff are trained in line with any medical needs that are set out within Health Care Plans e.g. epipen training.
